Dear Castell Safety staff,

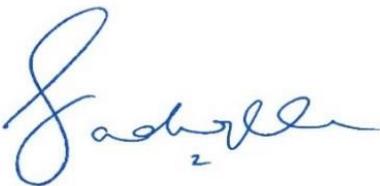

I wanted to write to congratulate you all on Castell's 100th anniversary.

This is an impressive achievement and it is remarkable to learn that some of you have been in service to Castell for over 30 years. The work you do to keep people safe at work is essential and I'd like to thank you for your hard work and dedication.

I'm fully committed to supporting London's recovery as we emerge from the pandemic and it is fantastic to see a high-skilled manufacturing company in London employing local people across generations. As you will have seen from the launch of our new Elizabeth Line just last month, manufacturing is vital to London's development and to the rest of the country.

Many congratulations once again on a centenary of Castell Safety. I wish you all a very enjoyable and well-deserved celebration.

Yours sincerely,
